

PRESS RELEASE

Collins Stewart Wealth Management appoints a HNW business introducer in sports industry

London, Guernsey, Isle of Man, Jersey and Geneva – 2nd August 2010:

Collins Stewart Wealth Management (CSWM) is delighted to announce the appointment of an experienced HNW business introducer with connections within the sports, media and entertainment industries. Clive Richardson has joined CSWM as a consultant with the objective of introducing CSWM's independent wealth management services to his client base.

Neil Darke, Head of CSWM commented:

“Clive is experienced and well connected within the sports, media and entertainment sectors and we hope to be able to help his clients with their wealth management needs.

Our business objective of achieving £10bn by 2012 has seen us acquire two independent wealth management firms this year. The focus now shifts back to organic growth and we look forward to working with Clive in achieving our objectives.”

Clive Richardson commented:

“I am excited to work with Collins Stewart Wealth Management whose dedication to independence, client service, an international perspective and offshore heritage will appeal to the entrepreneurial spirit that exists within the sectors – sports, media and entertainment – where I have experience.”
