Collins Stewart Wealth Management hires former Barclays Wealth Manager

London, Guernsey, Isle of Man, Jersey and Geneva – 10th February 2010: Christian Redman, formerly of Barclays Wealth, has joined Collins Stewart Wealth Management ("CSWM") as an Associate Director.

Chris, who will report into Symon Hawken, Head of Wealth Management for CSWM in London, had responsibility for the management of over £450m on behalf of private clients, across multiple asset classes. Chris had been at Gerrard (now part of Barclays Wealth) since 1986, where he was a senior investment manager and Divisional Director. During his time at Barclays, he also worked as the product specialist in Private Equity.

"We are very excited to welcome Chris as a senior member of our team in London. His 23 years of industry experience and network will be hugely beneficial to us as we seek to develop our private client business further," commented Symon Hawken.

Chris stated: "As an award winning wealth manager, I am delighted to be joining Collins Stewart Wealth Management. With their unrivalled dedication to traditional client servicing coupled with the latest money management techniques, I am looking forward to delivering outstanding client experience and contributing to the long term success of the business."
